

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

Report of a Special Lecture Organized by Literary Club of GMGC

On 16th October, The Literary Club of GMGC organized a lecture by Professor Ketaki Dutta. She is the Associate Professor of English in Chandannagar Government College. She is also a novelist, short story writer, poet, translator, editor and reviewer.

The event began at 2pm in room R9A and it continued for more than an hour. Not only did the members of the literary club attend the lecture but other students were also interested in attending the same.

Professor Ketaki Dutta was welcomed with a bouquet by a member of the club. Before beginning her lecture, she was requested to launch our Club's Handmade Slam book "Aitareya". Professor Ketaki Dutta along with Professor Monami Ghosh and Dr Ballari Ray Chaudhury launched the Slam book. We also requested her to launch the official Blog Page of The Literary Club. She presented a lecture on Translation studies. She discussed the factors involved in translation while giving examples from some books she brought with her, among which some of them were to her credit.

The event was informative and interactive. It was an honor to have Professor Ketaki Dutta as the Speaker and Guest to the club's event.

Glimpses of the Event:

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

