Details About the resource person/brief resume/introduction :

Smt. Aditi Chatterjee the course coordinator of the department of Advertising, Sales promotion and Sales Management of Gokhale Memorial Girls College conducted an interactive session on Divine Dialogue: Exploring Faith through Conversation. She guided and the students throughout the process of creating this presentation. She also helped the students to understand the importance of Faith and the impact religious gurus have in Indian society through this session.

Other Necessary Information :

The students of semester 2 and 4 prepared presentation and speech on modern gurus and their religious events. It was very engaging for the students as they learned about the relevance of faith and religion in modern Indian society and how the Gurus influences people through motivational speeches, seminars and other events. The session concluded on the note that how even during this modern era faith in God or Gurus helps to heal people by giving a sense of community and belonging.
