

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

ACTIVITY REPORT: 66 BASIC SKIING COURSE

The 66 basic skiing course started on the 21st of January and was concluded on the 3rd of February in Sonmarg , Kashmir. Rumaisa Kainat of semester 3, department of psychology, was a part of this course which was conducted by 39 Bengal Battalion NCC. The course was completed under the Jawahar Institute of Mountaineering and Winter Sports. This 14-day stay camp included basic skiing and theory on how to survive in extreme cold weathers of higher altitudes and glaciers. The course was concluded with a felicitation of the students by the principal of the Institute and a cultural programme conducted by the students.

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE