

Gokhale Memorial Girls' College

Report of the Literary Club 2021-22

The Literary Club of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College functions with the objective to develop diverse imaginative faculties of students by encouraging them to give free expression to their ideas through various creative ideas. The activities of this club are planned to augment the output of the members of the club and thereby imparting these values to the student community as a whole. The literary capabilities inherent in the students need to be chiseled out to give flair to their creative aptitude. With the motivation of Dr Sanchita Sen, Co-ordinator IQAC, Dr.Ballari Ray Chaudhury and Professor Monami Ghosh, with the incessant assistance of Durba Adhikari, the student coordinator, enrolled 22 student members who possessed an inherent interest in literary activities in spite of belonging to varied pedagogies. Till date the Club held four online meetings and numerous discussions which finally paved the way to a new publication of 'Monochrome', the literary supplement in December 2021. In the meetings at the early stage, the student members introduced themselves. Each of them was provided with a platform to express their literary ideas and their passion for literary activities. Their details were accumulated to form a whatsapp group as suggested in action plan. Student coordinators were selected, and after inviting suggestions from the student members, a rough draft was chalked out for a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2021- 2022 Weekly Book Reviews and Discussions to acquaint the students with the latest books, and authors was suggested to be carried out with each student member presenting a book review of recently read book. Subsequently, the Club decided to have random gatherings in order to organise a skit in the Annual Programme of the College held on 29 March 2022. This was successfully carried out through monthly assignments intended to provide impetus to students to read and debate upon a book or a film of their choice.

The first edition of the Literary Club journal was launched on the 6th of May, 2017.

Gokhale Memorial Girls' College

Report of the Literary Club

2018-19

Literary Club Report of The Literary Club of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College successfully unveiled the second edition of মনোchrome. The members of the club have contributed enthusiastically. The students have also prepared charts and posters to mark the occasion of Earth Day and have observed the day on campus to show their humble solidarity with this environmental movement. Some of the members were actively involved in scripting and performing Chiroshree, a play that was staged during the Annual Day celebrations at Sisir Mancha.

2017-18

An Inter-institutional Exchange Programme titled Negotiating interactions : Voices, Spaces and Protests in collaboration with The Sanskrit College and University was held on May 8, 2017.

Miscellany 2022

The electronic version of Miscellany 2022 was officially launched on September 27th, 2022 in the college premises by the Principal Dr. Atashi Kapha and the celebrity vocalist Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay. This is the second time that the college published an E-version. The first E-magazine was launched virtually over Zoom platform on September 11th, 2021. The last Hard copy Miscellany was the 2019 edition launched in January 2020. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic the 2020 edition of Miscellany could not be pursued.

The day of the launch was marked by a Vocal Art Workshop, conducted by Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay, organized jointly by the Cultural Club and the Magazine Committee of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College. 19 student members of the cultural club participated in the workshop. The proceedings of the Vocal Art Workshop consisted of readings from Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay and Sanjib Chattopadhyay, mentored by Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay. The noted vocalist guest spoke at length about intonation, pronunciation and modulation for quality improvement of any audio presentation. The E-version of Miscellany, 2022 can be viewed by clicking on the following link:

<https://online.fliphtml5.com/nkwge/mvlg/#.YyzGjmp6nqw.gmail>

Miscellany 2022

The electronic version of Miscellany 2022 was officially launched on September 27th, 2022 in the college premises by the Principal Dr. Atashi Kapha and the celebrity vocalist Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay. This is the second time that the college published an E-version. The first E-magazine was launched virtually over Zoom platform on September 11th, 2021. The last Hard copy Miscellany was the 2019 edition launched in January 2020. Due to the Covid-19 pandemic the 2020 edition of Miscellany could not be pursued.

The day of the launch was marked by a Vocal Art Workshop, conducted by Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay, organized jointly by the Cultural Club and the Magazine Committee of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College. 19 student members of the cultural club participated in the workshop. The proceedings of the Vocal Art Workshop consisted of readings from Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay and Sanjib Chattopadhyay, mentored by Sri Satinath Mukhopadhyay. The noted vocalist guest spoke at length about intonation, pronunciation and modulation for quality improvement of any audio presentation. The E-version of Miscellany, 2022 can be viewed by clicking on the following link:

<https://online.fliphtml5.com/nkwge/mvlg/#.YyzGjmp6nqw.gmail>

Monochrome : Dec 2021

In the meetings at the early stage, the student members introduced themselves. Each of them was provided with a platform to express their literary ideas and their passion for literary activities. Their details were accumulated to form a whatsapp group as suggested in action plan. Student coordinators were selected, and after inviting suggestions from the student members, a rough draft was chalked out for a plan of activities for the Club for the year 2021- 2022. Weekly Book Reviews and Discussions to acquaint the students with the latest books, and authors was suggested to be carried out with each student member presenting a book review of recently read book. Subsequently, the Club decided to have random gatherings in order to organise a skit in the Annual Programme of the College held on 29 March 2022. This was successfully carried out through monthly assignments intended to provide impetus to students to read and debate upon a book or a film of their choice.