The seminar was inaugurated by our respected Principal Madam Dr. Atashi Kapha. In this session she shared her thoughts on Folk Literature of Bengal. Thereafter as the Keynote Speaker Prof. Mantoo Das explained the concept of Folk literature and expressed his views on various dimensions of folk literature. Dr. Shyambabu Sharma, Sri Harilal Milan joined virtually and expressed their views on folk literature. Dr. Madhumita Ojha also shared her views on folk literature as a guest speaker.

Outcome: The participants gained deeper knowledge of folk literature including folk tales, songs, myths, proverbs and oral traditions. The seminar helps in understanding the cultural values, beliefs, customs and traditions of different communities. This seminar will help to create the awareness about the importance of preserving and documenting the folk literature for future generations. It will encourage the students to explore folk literature through research, fieldwork and documentations. Overall it was a fantastic and informative program. We all enjoyed a lot with refreshment offered by the college.

Expenditure: Rupees 5580 /- sponsored by Gokhale Memorial Girls' College.
