

REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR DR. S. E. RANI GHOSH:-

The memorial service for Dr. S. E. Rani Ghosh, the founding principal of Gokhale Memorial Girls' College, is an annual event held on November 18 to honor her legacy. This year, the service featured a cultural program organized by students, a lamp-lighting ceremony and an address by the college principal, Dr. Atashi Karpha. Dr. Ghosh, remembered as an ardent educationist and advocate for women's empowerment, played a crucial role in establishing the college as a pioneer in education for women in India.

The cultural program carried out by the students consisted of a narration about Dr. Rani Ghosh's life, achievements, and her immense contribution to the establishment of the very foundation of the college. A performance of various Rabindrasangeet of puja porjay was presented by a student ensemble. The participants of the whole program were Anandi Das, Sonia Barua, Upasana Bagchi, Sampurna Samaddar, Mouktika Sen, Sampurna Banerjee, Aankhi Abir Sharma, Oishi Biswas, and Avantika Goswami.

As a tribute to the founding principal.

Dr. Rani Ghosh, through her tireless effort, established a cultural excellence in young women, fostered a sense of community and a spirit of enquiry. Her unwavering dedication and passion has truly set the tone for institution and has established Gokhale Memorial Girls' College a place where students value the power of education, culture and holistic development.
