

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

All Departments of GMGC

Please give special attention to the formats specified.

All submissions are to be made via email to.
for.verseque@gmail.com

The deadline for submission is 30.04.2023

Plagiarism is highly discouraged. No ill-intentioned jokes on topics such as, race, caste, religion, gender identity and sexuality will be tolerated.

Since Verseque is a literary magazine, we hope to include works by any student who dabbles in creative writing. Just because you study math for your degree doesn't mean you can't write poetry. Verseque requests the students of all departments of GMGC to send their best entries for inclusion in this magazine.

- Types of work that will be considered are poetry and short story/ personal essay type prose.
- Maximum word limit for each poem/prose is 1000 words.
- If your work is in the English language, submit your typed entry in a word document with .docx extension. Title the email “[Entry type e.g. poetry] Entry [Department Name]”, with your name and semester in the body of the email.
- For vernacular entries, please send poems/stories/essays suitably edited either by the writer herself or another student of GMGC.

- Please send your entry in a .pdf file, attached to an email titled “Bengali/Hindi Entry [Department name].
- Students from all departments can send vernacular entries. They should be in .pdf file format and preferably edited/proofread.
- The name of the writer of the entry and their semester should be mentioned in the email. If the work is edited by a different person, please mention their name and semester under “Edited by”. If the person belongs to a department other than the writer, please mention that as well.
