

GOKHALE MEMORIAL GIRLS' COLLEGE

ACTIVITY REPORT ON INDIAN MUSEUM VISIT

Students of Semester 1 (SEC I) and Semester 3 (SEC III) of the Department of History, Gokhale Memorial Girls' College visited Indian Museum, Kolkata on 9th of November, 2024 with their Faculty Ms. Sanjukta De. It was an Educational one day visit to that historical heritage museum.

Aims and Objectives: To observe different galleries full with artefacts belonging to different periods. We put our focus on the Bharhut gallery, Gandhara gallery, Mathura gallery and other regional galleries as well. Another objective of this visit is to identify different schools of art which have emerged in the ancient, early medieval, medieval era. Minutely observing these artefacts will help students to find and analyse similarities and dissimilarities among various art objects. They will understand the importance of sites, different materials, styles of different groups of masons as well. Not only the art gallery, they also visited the painting gallery, cloth gallery, Egyptian gallery etc as well. They were thrilled and understood the whole process of how different objects are protected in museums and how to do cataloguing as well. They observed that Indian museum have their own separate library and only the research scholars will get access to it.

Outcome:

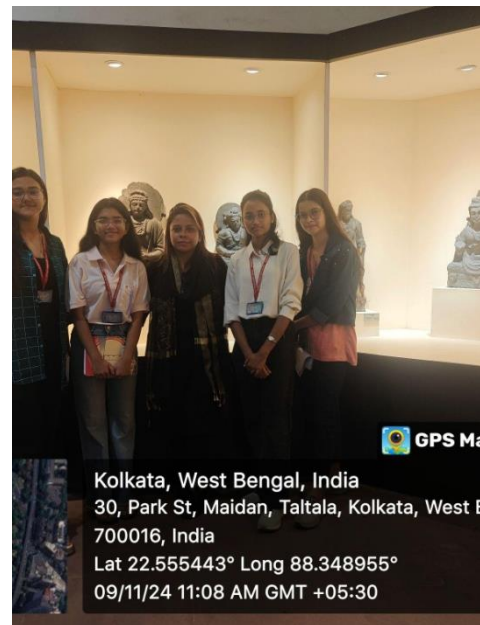

Students of Semester I and Semester 3 really enjoyed this visit. They took time to wander around each and every room / gallery of this Place and also took a couple of pictures. They understood the vitality of this place while reading ancient, early medieval, medieval and contemporary history.
